Where you live is so important to your happiness. Located in the rolling foothills of the beautiful Appalachians, this gorgeous college town was named one of the best places to live in Alabama due to its proximity to business centers, dining and shopping, recreation, and a first-class educational system. With a population of 100,000, it is one of the fastest growing counties in Alabama. An international airport just 20 minutes away makes it easy to travel anywhere you like. And it was named one of the safest cities in the state as well.

From steaks and sushi at Samurai Steakhouse to sports bars and great Mexican restaurants, from Pho to burgers, over 140 restaurants offer a wide variety to dining for your family. You can hike any of the lovely 20 trails throughout the county or take your boat out on the water and dock it for lunch at Lucy's Hideaway Grill. The Superbowl of catfishing is held here each year and it is famous for its bass fishing tournaments. From rodeos to golf tournaments to master gardening events to sporting clay tournaments to Christmas events galore. This is a place to enjoy life and be engaged in all the ways that make you happiest.
